

ESSAY CONTESTANT RELEASE

1. I grant Stanley M. Herzog Charitable Foundation (“Foundation”) permission to make motion picture, photographic, copy, sound, and/or audio-visual recordings of me, my performance, my acceptance, and/or my biographical materials and information, including without limitation those submitted in connection with any application submission (“Recording”) in connection with the Herzog Foundation Bill of Rights Essay Contest (the “Contest”). I hereby grant to the Foundation (including its agents, licensees, sublicensees, successors, and assigns) the absolute right and permission, but not the obligation, to use, record, copyright, publicly perform and display, copy, distribute, and prepare derivative works based on the Recording, and to sublicense the foregoing, including my name, voice, image, likeness, biographical material and content, nomination and application material and content, or any material based upon or derived therefrom, in any manner or medium now existing or hereafter created, in connection with the Contest, including any promotion and fundraising activities of the Foundation.
2. I agree that any Recording of me, or anything derived therefrom or created by the Foundation and/or the licensed parties is owned by them, and may be incorporated into and/or used in connection with the Contest and/or any other works, and the reproduction, distribution, public performance and display, preparation of derivative works based upon, marketing, promotion, and/or other exploitation of the Contest and/or any other works in any medium now known or hereafter created, in perpetuity throughout the universe, whether or not the Foundation and/or any licensed party is compensated for such exploitation. The Foundation may add or subtract from the Recording as used in the Contest and/or any other works in its sole discretion. If I should receive any print, negative, or other copy, I will not authorize its use by anyone else.
3. I further warrant that use of my contribution and/or any materials I provide to the Foundation in connection with the Contest, including any application therefor, will not result in liability to the Foundation and/or any licensed party for any claims of copyright infringement, invasion of privacy, right of publicity, disclosure of confidential information, unfair competition or defamation; and, further agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Foundation, its agents, employees, licensees, and sublicensees from expenses and damages arising out of any such claim, including expenses involved in defending such a claim. I shall have no right of approval, no claim to additional compensation, and no claim (including, without limitation, claims based upon copyright, invasion of privacy, right of publicity, disclosure of confidential information, unfair competition or defamation) arising out of any use, alteration, distortion, or illusionary effect or use in any composite form.
4. I understand that the Foundation may, in its sole discretion, revoke, withdraw, or otherwise disqualify me from any past, present or future contest, including without limitation for any unethical, disruptive, or other conduct not befitting a Contest winner. The Foundation will not be liable for any kind of loss, damage, or injury arising from my participation in, or removal from, the Contest.
5. I agree that this release does not in any way conflict with any existing commitment on my part.
